From Tuesday April 29, to Saturday May 3, 1746.

St. James's, May 3.

THIS Day the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of London, waited on his Majesty with the following Address.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your sacred Person with our most sincere and hearty Congratulations upon the late glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms; which under the Command of his Royal Highness the Duke, has defeated the Rebellious Attempts of your deluded Subjects, assisted by the most inveterate Enemies to the British Constitution.

Permit us, Sir, to return our most unfeigned Thanks to your Majesty, for the Appointment of his Royal Highness the Duke, to this important Service; whose Conduct and Bravery, so early conspicuous, have, by the Blessing of the Almighty, produced this our happy Deliverance; a Glory reserv'd for one of your illustrious Family, endowed with those princely Qualities, which render him amiable to those under his Command, and formidable to his Enemies.

As Disgrace and Ruin have fallen on the Heads of those wicked Persons who have been Confederates in this abhorred and detested Rebellion for the Subversion of our happy Constitution, and depriving us of all that is dear and valuable to us; so (we trust) that by Divine Providence from their Disappointment and Destruction, Stability will redound to your Majesty's Throne, Unity of Affection to your Royal Person and Family, and Glory to your Government, over a free and happy People.

May a Series of Success attend your Majesty's Arms, until Tranquillity be restored to Europe; and your Subjects firmly established in the Possession of their just Rights of Trade and Navigation.

Give us Leave to add, that it shall be always our firm Resolution, as it is our indispensable Duty, to oppose every Attempt of the common Disturbers of the Peace of Europe, against the Rights of your Crown, and that Happiness which we hope this Nation will ever enjoy under a Succession of Protestant Princes of your Majesty's Royal House.

To which Address his Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer.

I Thank you for this affectionate Address. The Satisfaction you shew in the Success of my Arms, against the Enemies of our happy Constitution, and in the Conduct of my Son the Duke, is a fresh and most agreeable Mark of your Duty to me, and Zeal for my Government.

They were graciously received, and had all the Honour to kiss his Majesty's Hand.

Whitehall, April 29.

This Day an Express arrived from his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, with the following Advices.

Inverness, April 23. On Monday Mr. Grant, with 600 of his Followers, came to join us, and for the present they are ordered to be quartered in the M'Intosh's Country. The Grants having taken the Lord Balmerino, delivered him up to his Royal Highness: He is the Person, who, after the Battle of Dunblain in the last Rebellion, deserted to the Rebels at Perth. He was then Captain Elphistone, of Shannon's Regiment of Foot.

All the French Officers and Soldiers, who were left here, are now Prisoners; and Yesterday 310 of them were shipped off for Newcastle. Almost all the Pretender's Son's Servants are come in; and as they were all French, and had not been with him before he came to France, his Royal Highness has given them Passports to go Home. Lord Sutherland is with 8 or 900 of his People in the Head of the Frasers Country, and near the Chisolms of Strath Glass. Lord Loudoun, who is at present with 1300 Men in the Isle of Skye, is ordered by his Royal Highness to land in the Country of the Glenranolds, and to march up to Fort Augustus. Lord Cobham's Regiment is this Day marched for Montrose, to guard the Sea Coast.

From

From the Camp of Taro, April 22, N. S. The Marquis de Caſtellar retired in the Night between the 19th and 20th Inſtant from Parma, with all the Forces and Baggage which he could poſſibly get together, and took the Road that leads to the Mountains, leaving the reſt of his Troops and his Artillery in the Cittadel of Parma; which General Nadaſti being informed of, he immediately purſued M. de Caſtellar, and has poſted his Forces in ſuch a Manner, that it will be difficult for the Spaniards to eſcape. After their Retreat, the Cittadel of Parma immediately capitulated, and the Garriſon conſiſting of 500 Men, beſides 350 Sick, are made Priſoners of War, being permitted however to retain their Baggage. M. de Caſtellar's Corps is computed at 5000 Men.

Ulm, April 29, N. S. Letters which arrived this Morning from Inſpruck confirm the foregoing Account, and add, that an Eſtafette paſſed there the 25th, in his Way from Italy to Vienna, who gave out, that General Nadaſti had attacked and defeated the Body under M. de Caſtellar, and that of thoſe who had eſcaped from the Battle, 250 had deſerted to the Auſtrians.

Vienna, April 27. Valentia was inveſted on the 13th Inſtant, and the Artillery was expected on the 18th, during which Interval the King of Sardinia's Intention was to allow the Spaniards an honourable Capitulation, if they deſired it; but in Caſe they waited till the Arrival of the Artillery, his Sardinian Majeſty's Reſolution was to make them Priſoners of War. This Court has received Advice from Milan, as if the Infant's Baggage and the Spaniards Great Artillery were arrived in the Genoeſe Territory, while M. de Maillebois was on the other Hand making ſuch Motions, as ſeemed to indicate a Deſign to join M. de Gages.

Copenhagen, April 30, N. S. The King of Denmark has now reſumed his gentle Exerciſe of going Abroad in a cloſe Coach during the Warmth of the Day; and Diſpoſitions are making for his Removal, next Tueſday, to Hirſholm. As to the State of his Health, it ſeems to be pretty much the ſame ſtill, without any conſiderable Alteration one Way or other. About four Days ago her Royal Highneſs the Hereditary Princeſs Louiſa was taken ill of the Meaſles, which have been ſo rife here of late; but as they came out very favourably, and are attended with no bad Symptoms, there is good Reaſon to hope that the Danger is already paſt.

Hague, May 6, N. S. The Letters from Paris of the 2d Inſtant mention the French King's being ſet out the Night before for Bruſſels. Marſhal Bathiani has removed his Head-Quarters to the Right of Mechlin, and drawn the Auſtrians lower down the Dyle; and it is thought the whole Allied Army will ſoon encamp all together in Order of Battle, in ſome Poſt the fitteſt for covering Antwerp, and preſerving its Communication with this Country. The Rendezvous of the French Army does not ſeem yet declared, though ſome ſay, they have marked out a Camp at Zaventheim before Bruſſels.

Rotterdam, May 6. Letters from Mechlin and Antwerp mention the French King's Arrival at Bruſſels on Wedneſday Night, and that their Troops were in Motion on every Side; and ſome Letters even ſay, that they were advanced near Mechlin.

Willemſtadt, April 26. The Tranſports, with the Recruit Horſes belonging to Lord Stair, Lord Rothes, and General Cope's Regiment, arrived ſafe here this Morning at Five of the Clock, and it was hoped would be all diſembarked by To-morrow Morning's Tide.

Whitehall, May 2.

The King has been pleaſed to grant unto Diederick Weſſell Linden, Doctor of Phyſick, his Royal Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of England, for making of Salt Petre.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 1.

Order'd, that the Court goes out of Mourning on Sunday next the 4th Inſtant, for the late Prince of Brunſwick Wolfenbuttel Bevern.
